

CODE ENFORCEMENT

A principal responsibility of the Fire Marshal's Office is to enforce applicable Fire & Life Safety codes. This is done through a system of permits and inspections. The codes apply to residential and commercial construction, places of assembly, special events (gatherings), fireworks stands, and the proper handling, storage, and use of hazardous substances.