

FIRE SAFETY EDUCATION

The fire prevention bureau is committed to the safety and education of the community it serves. Our goal is to provide every citizen within our city the highest level of safety awareness training available. The department can best accomplish this through fire safety education.

The prevention bureau can provide information and literature on many topics of fire safety, from home fire safety to work place fire safety.